

Prayer and repentance of the lies of the enemy:

Lord, I come to you right now with all the lies I have believed about my life, my relationship with my family and my relationship with the Father. I repent for not believing the truth about what you say about me in your Word. I want nothing to do with these lies and want to replace them with the truth of your word and what you have to say about me, Father. I renounce all lies of the enemy and embrace the truth that You call me holy and dearly loved. I rebuke the voice of the enemy in my mind, take a stand against any deception trying to root in my life and I silence the lies in Jesus' name. I now tear these lies apart, throw them away, never to believe them again. I now ask you Father to help me replace every lie with the truth of your word. Thank you for loving and embracing me with your loving arms. In Jesus name, AMEN!
